ALL ABOARD FOR PORTLAND TODAY

The People of Astoria are Going to Visit their Sister City Up the River.

WILL SEE THE EXPOSITION

Our Citizens are Remembering That Tonight is Astoria Night and Will See That It is a Success.

"Oh, dear, what can the matter be, Johnny's so long at the fair."

"Sings the maiden in the song. She will not sing it today, for she is going with Johnny and she will know why he stays and she will not blame him."

The fair's the thing. The exposition at Portland is the attraction for Astorians today, for today and tonight are set apart by the management as Astoria's own particular time. Astoria night will eclipse all other nights in the exposition's history. All the regular features will appear at their best and besides, there will be numerous other attractions, really and truly attractions, secured by the management for this one night only.

There has been no desperate effort made to drum up a crowd—no personal solicitations, no special rates (for indeed rates are "special" enough as they are.) The invitation has simply been extended and arrangements have been made to interest the Astorians when they attend the exposition. The idea has "caught on" and there will be a rush today.

It will be a jolly, good-natured crowd. The dyspeptic complainers cannot consistently go, now, and this will add to the enjoyment of the trip. Everybody is assured of a good time.

It is well to remember that the train will not end its journey at the Union depot when it reaches Portland but will continue up through Fourth street to Washington. This is a convenience that will be appreciated.

If the weather is at all favorable at the next regatta meeting the visitors from Portland will be numbered by the thousands. They will be heartily welcomed. Indeed their presence makes or mars to a great degree the success of the Astoria regatta. And when Portland invites Astoria to be her guest for one day it is as little as a loyal Astorian can do to at least treat the invitation courteously, even if he cannot attend.

Going to the fair will be a pleasant way in which to serve one's town. It will be broad cast upon the waters. And while doing it one will feast on cake.

So its off for the fair today. Men and women and children, young and old, rich and poor, good looking and otherwise, curly haired and straight haired, republicans, democrats populists and prohibitionists, will take today's train and be the guests of Portland.

A snail's pace was carefully observed in Florence, Italy. Several of the mol-

A POEM ON MANKIND.

Like what is man, but like a sprouting weed,
That grows and ripens but to cast its seed
Among the thistles and the tares of life
And then to see it strangled in the strife?
Or like the clouds that wander with the breeze
And pass unnoticed from a life of ease?
Or like a mushroom, sprung to life,
Alas!
To starve or strangle in the tangled grass?

These are thoughts that are apt to come to many people at times, especially when they are sick and have to pay big prices for medicines. But there is one drug store in Oregon where you can save from 10 to 25 per cent on everything you buy, and that is J. A. Clemenson's Drug Store, at 227 Yamhill street, Portland, Ore. At that store you can get Hood's Sarsaparilla at 70c; Mellin's Food, $1 size, 55c; Bromo Seltzer, $1 size, 70c, and everything else at the same low rate. You can get red trading stamps there, and if you need the Natural Body Brace, you can get it there.

FINE FRESCO WORK.

An Excellent Example of Oregon Workmanship to Be Seen at the Exposition.

Yearly those who visit the exposition at Portland have expressed very general admiration of the decorations and scenery paintings, all of which has been done by Ernest Miller, the Wall Paper Dealer, No. 127 First street, Portland. Parties who contemplate having Fine Tinting and Frescoing done should address this firm.
